CASH!

We have tried the credit system long enough to know that it is a losing business and have determined hereafter to demand the cash for all job work, advertising or subscription, except from those who are regular customers.

We are prepared to do job work of every description as neat as can be done anywhere. Our prices will be low, and our terms cash.

REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE.—This seems to be a favorite office with aspirants for nomination upon the State ticket. We have already noticed some six or eight gentlemen whose names have been suggested in different portions of the State. We have heard none more favorably mentioned than our young but popular friend, Elijah Arnold, Esq., the present Sheriff of Owen county. Mr. Arnold, as the representative of Sweet Owen upon the ticket, should receive the nomination, would make a splendid race. He is one of the best Democrats in the world, and has all the business qualifications to make a first-rate Register of the Land Office.

The Synod of Virginia, in connection with the Constituent General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, will assemble at Portsmouth, Va., on the 3d of November. The Transcript says:

This is one of the Synods that withdrew from the General Assembly which met at Cleveland, Ohio, at the annual meeting in May, 1856, in consequence of the Abolition complexion of that body. In the bosom of this Synod are some of the strongest Presbyterian Churches in the State, and many of the ministers are men of eminent ability. It comprises all the New School so-called Churches of Washington, Baltimore, Alexandria, Richmond, Lynchburg, &c., &c.

AN UNEXPECTED FORTUNE.—It is stated that a surviving daughter of Aaron Burr comes suddenly into possession of quite a fortune in this way:

Burr died a tenant from Trinity church of the Richmond H. property, three or four hundred lots in the city of New York, for sixty-six years. He released the land for sixty-three years to As. or his heirs, and then lease expires in 1860. The lease for three years then belongs to Burr's daughter, and the claim is incontestable and the value of the lease very great. Already several of the lessees have compromised the claim for $1,500 to $2,000 per lot.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.—Persons from a distance in attendance on the courts in this city, before leaving, should visit the clothing house of Charles B. Geer, opposite the Mansion House, and lay in a supply of winter clothing. He has a well-selected stock of the best of all kinds, of the latest fashions, and made in the most substantial manner. Any one in need of clothing will save money by walking at his house. He sells cheap.

DYING HOUSE.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertizement of Mr. J. H. Montgomery, Louisville. Persons who have clothing a little soiled can, by sending them to him, have them cleaned and repaired so as to look as good as new. He proposes to color ladies' dresses, shawls, &c., in the best manner, and we have no doubt will give satisfaction to all who patronize him. See advertizement, and send him your orders.

NOW IS THE TIME.—Charley Clarke, at his gallery next the telegraph office, is taking likenesses at half the usual price. Any one in want of a good ambrotype had better avail themselves of this opportunity, as it will last but for a short time.

ACQUITTED.—The case of R. R. Lindsey for the killing of D. L. Ward, in Louisville, a short time since, came up for trial on Saturday last, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Correspondence of the Yeoman.]
Col. John P. Martin, of Floyd, for Governor.
GREENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 19, 1858.

EDITOR YEOMAN: Though the claims of many distinguished and talented gentlemen have lately been warmly urged by their respective friends, through the columns of your paper, for the office of Governor, I beg leave, without intending the slightest disparagement to any of them, to present for the consideration of the Democracy the name of Hon. John P. Martin, of Floyd county, as a gentleman eminently qualified for that high and responsible position.

I do not know that he desires the office, nor yet indeed whether he would consent for his name to be used in connection therewith before the convention; but this I do know, that no one in the State would be more acceptable to the Democracy of Northeastern Kentucky than Col. Martin, and I think I am not deceived in supposing that his nomination would be equally acceptable to many other portions of the State.

Col. Martin is well known to the people of Kentucky as a sound Democrat, a pure patriot, an accomplished gentleman, and a statesman of enlarged and enlightened views upon all questions of public policy. He is one of the few who, upon doctrinal points, is never wrong; and having spent a lifetime in the service of his party, he is now regarded as the bulwark of Democracy in the mountains, and his nomination would be hailed with a clamor such as never before arose from these hills to nominate his party to renewed exertions and prestige for the Democracy a grand, glorious, and triumphant victory. If elected he could easily make a selection for Governor, Col. Martin would undoubtedly be entitled to the nomination. But though the mountains have long been silent, and few of her sons ever honored with any of the important offices of the State, yet we of this section base his claims upon no such grounds, but alone upon his merit and worth, and the many valuable services he has done his party from the time of his re-entrance to the present hour.

Before I close this note, allow me to suggest the name of Thos. Hazlegrave, of Montgomery county, as a suitable person for the office of Auditor. Though he resides beyond the utmost verge of our mountain range, he is deservedly popular in that region, and would make a gallant race for any office in the gift of the people. He is a profound lawyer of many years' practice, and fully competent to discharge all the duties of the office. And as to his Democracy, it can now be questioned; his political orthodoxy is well attested by every act of his life connected with political matters, and the abandonment of his nomination would be received with joy by the Democracy.

With much respect, I remain, yours, &c., &c.

R.

Miss ROSENKIEWICZ.—We learn that this accomplished young vocalist, a resident of Cincinnati, will give a concert in this city about the 15th of next month. We find the following notice of her in the Columbus (O.) Statesman:

Miss Rose C. Rosenkiewicz.—This young lady received on Monday evening a splendid and indubitable evidence of the estimation in which she is held in Columbus. Her benefit was a brilliant testimonial to her great talents, worth and bold appearance. The audience was very large, entirely composed of the intellectual and cultivated, and included a remarkable number of ladies. The hall was resounding with beauty and fashion. As before, Miss Rosenkiewicz was almost received as a leading prima donna, appear in the land of her fathers, in that costume, and sing the prayer and war-like chante of Poland while the red flag waves over Warsaw. At the conclusion of the concert, Miss Rosenkiewicz, in a charming and ingenuous address, thanked the audience and the gentlemen who had volunteered to assist her, for her well and her love. She said that she had been really and was not able to sing as well as used. The apology was unnecessary; it was generally remarked, that her execution was superior to what it was on her former visit. The Beethoven Orchestra distinguished itself very much.

SALT-WORKS RENTED.—Colonel Thos. L. Preston has rented the salt-works and his property adjacent in Washington county, Virginia, to a New York company, for a term of ten years, at $50,000 per year.

On third Monday in November, I sing County Court day, the Democracy of Caldwell county will hold a meeting, to appoint delegates to the Convention at Frankfort, on the 6th of January next.

We learn from the Louisville Journal that the flouring mills known as the "Dover Mills," nine miles below Maysville were totally destroyed by fire a few days since.

Hon. A. G. Talbott, member of Congress from the 4th District, was in the city yesterday.

Hon. O. P. Hogan, of Grant, was in the city yesterday.

The treatment they adopt is the result of upwards of years extensive and successful practice in Europe and America.

A MOST SCIENTIFIC INVENTION.

An instrument for the cure of genuine Debility, or Nocturnal Luminescence more properly known as Seminal and Vaginal Debility, has been invented, and is now in use, and has been adopted from fifteen to twenty days, in the use of this instrument.

The treatment they adopt is the result of upwards of years extensive and successful practice in Europe and America.

YOUNG MEN TAKE NOTICE.

DR. AMOS & SON take pleasure in announcing that they have invented a most important instrument for the cure of Seminal Debility, which is now in use, and is the result of the most eminent physician in London, Paris, Philadelphia, New York, it has been declared the only useful instrument ever yet invented for the cure of Seminal Weakness or any disease of the genital organs.

A CARD
From Dr. James M. Jarrett, of the New York Lung Infirmary.

MY connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, and its allied diseases, too often arising from unwholesome occupations and habits, has given me a wide and varied opportunity to observe the results of general treatment, and although I consider it a useful adjunct in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of my treatment and their treatment. The character of the disease, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any excuse or explanation from me. As the use of the inhalation of pure, rarefied, and aromatic vapors, such as those of the camphor and the antiseptic Liniment, has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will be of benefit to my patients and treatment, within the limits of my means, and treatment heretofore to those on whom I have exerted my skill, who are able to visit me at my office.

Therefore, I am forwarding a correct detail of their cases, with a remittance for Medicines, etc., which will be returned with the utmost dispatch, and secured to their observation.
